Case No. 2:10-cv-01224-JCM-LRL

SECOND JOINT STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR LIMITED STAY OF DISCOVERY PENDING MEDIATION AND ORDER THEREON

WHEREAS, after the filing of the answer, the parties agreed in principle to mediate and try to resolve the case so as to avoid litigation expense if possible. After agreeing to use Hon.

Gene Porter (ret.), a mediator experienced in both class action and labor matters, the parties attended one session of mediation.

Plaintiff Charde Evans and Defendant WAL-MART Stores, Inc., by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate to stay discovery, including disclosures under Fed. R. Civ. P. § 26. This stay shall be in effect until November 7, 2011.

The parties were unable to reach a settlement. It was agreed that additional information would be exchanged with a goal of setting another session of mediation. As a result the parties request this court to stay these proceedings until November 7, 2011. This is the second stay requested. The parties are proceeding in good faith and believe this stay will enable them to better explore a potential resolution of this matter. Therefore the parties request this court to stay these proceedings until November 7, 2011.

DATED this 8th day of August, 2011.
